

ANNOUNCING

Universal Worship Ministerial Training

Introductory seminars

December 13, 2008 & January 10, 2009

These introductory seminars will present a broad overview of the History, philosophy, and tradition of the Universal Worship Service as founded by Hazrat Inayat Khan. We will also look at the outer components of the service: Candle lighting, scriptural selections and readings, offering of the scriptures, music and chants, prayers, giving the sermon and conferring the Benediction. As well, we will cover the inner aspects of the preparation of the minister (Cherag) such as attunement, spiritual concentrations, heart development, broadness of capacity and perspective, and Being the Messenger.

Presented by Siraj (Very Reverend) Tasnim Hemila Fernandez, who received her first ordination as a Cherag in 1976 and her second ordination as a Siraj in 1998 from Hazrat Pir Vilayat Inayat Khan. She presents training workshops and Sufi seminars across the United States, Canada, Australia, and South America. She was initiated in 1971 and serves as a Senior teacher (Murshida) in the Sufi Order International. Mda Tasnim directs the Church of All / Zawiya at-Tawhid in Burbank, CA. and is also a co-founder of, and Senior Mentor for the International Network for the Dances of Universal Peace.

Contact: tasnimf@aol.com , 818.841-3246 for details & registration.

Toward The One ~ United With All